About us

OUR MISSION

Moms in Security is a not-for-profit organization that focuses its efforts on fundraising and awareness for victims of human trafficking and child exploitation. Our goal is to be a liaison between the security industry, law enforcement, and public/private organizations to create actionable solutions in the fight against human trafficking.

OUR VISION

We aim to shine light on the monstrous issue of human trafficking and to offer ideas for creating awareness, safe reporting mechanisms, and partnerships that support the recovery and rehabilitation of victims and reunification with their families.

CORE PROGRAM AREAS

- Education: We prioritize the dissemination of knowledge regarding the complexities of human trafficking, encompassing its nature, manifestations, and strategies for prevention.
- Crusaders Program: Utilizing our well-established connections with leading technology companies, we facilitate the procurement of essential equipment, greatly amplifying the efficiency of child rescue missions carried out by law enforcement and nonprofit organizations.
- Millstone Project: To bolster the effectiveness of law enforcement and nonprofit endeavors, the Millstone Project centers its efforts on advocating for legislation that places children's protection at the forefront everywhere.

IMPACT

Over the last year, Moms in Security solicited several thousand surveillance cameras, as well as other security equipment for the purposes of outfitting various operation centers for approximately eight non-profits that handle investigations, rescue and rehabilitation of trafficked individuals. Moms in Security has also served as a technical consulting arm for the child exploitation division of a major homeland security office in the Metro New York area.
