Dearest Gentle Reader,

The social season is upon us for the 12th annual Wine Women & Shoes in support of the Midland Rape Crisis and Children's Advocacy Center (MRCCAC). Such a just cause is truly a noble justification for a joyous jubilee. Since its auspicious inception in 1979, the MRCCAC has extended its compassionate reach to over 650 children, offering more than 400,000 hours of therapeutic care and touching the lives of thousands of families along the way.

As we prepare to don our finest for the occasion, a wave of revered remembrance sweeps over us. Who could forget the roaring ovations for the courageous survivors who so graciously shared their truths? Or that delightful detour into the virtual world—an endeavor that proved even distance could not dim our shine. And let us not overlook those infamous “Shoe Guy” spectacles—ranging from toe-tapping musicals to nostalgic ‘90s rap—each more charmingly ludicrous than the last. Oh, the sparkling wine and unmatched fundraising!

Yet beneath the glittering surface of satin stilletos and clinking glasses, a far greater purpose resonates. Through this dazzling gathering, we have championed the Midland Rape Crisis and Children's Advocacy Center (MRCCAC)—ushering in vital change with the opening of a satellite office in Big Spring, creating comfortable spaces for survivors, delivering essential supplies, and advancing countless heartfelt projects. And may I be so bold to claim the tale is far from reaching its final chapter.

So, mark your calendars, dear readers, for the 25th of September, 2025, when the Midland County Horseshoe Pavilion shall transform into a Regency Ball for an unforgettable fête. Expect laughter, luxury, and libations aplenty—not to mention curated shopping and outlandish offerings courtesy of our most esteemed collaborators:

Designs by Imagine It. Stanton Weddings. and Indulgence Catering.

Since 1979, the MRCCAC has been a steadfast guardian for survivors of sexual assault, and with the introduction of the Children's Advocacy Center in 1996, that noble mission only deepened. Through forensic interviews, therapy, advocacy, and education, they have crafted a safety net across counties, offering sanctuary to those who need it most—always without cost, always with compassion.

By partaking in this most fashionable of causes, you do more than sip and shop—you uplift, you empower, you stand as a beacon of hope. We most earnestly hope you shall do us the honour of your presence and support.
