WINE WOMEN & SHOES CHATTANOOGA

Created for individuals who enjoy fine wine, great style, and supporting a noble cause: Ronald McDonald House Charities® of Greater Chattanooga

This year's Wine Women & Shoes will include a marketplace featuring local vendors, a live & silent auction, and glamorous entertainment. Wine Women & Shoes offers sponsors a unique opportunity to place their businesses in front of affluent, savvy women in the Chattanooga community while contributing to a fantastic organization.

Ronald McDonald House Charities® of Greater Chattanooga is proud that our signature fundraising event has grown into an annual tradition in our community, continuing in partnership with the expert Wine Women & Shoes team, who have helped raise $400+ million with their charity partners across the United States and Canada.

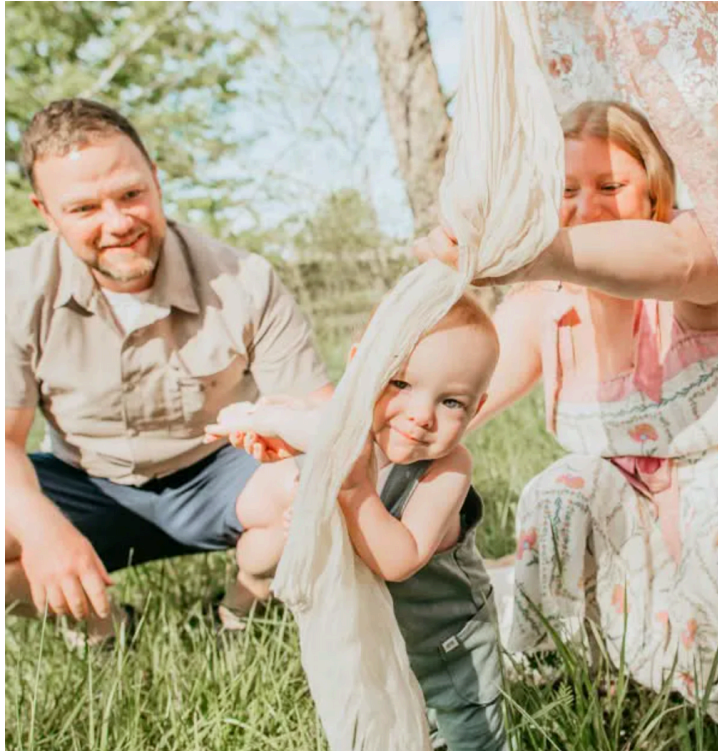

We have a variety of sponsorship options to fit your company's charitable strategy. With YOUR help, we can continue our mission of providing comfort, care, and support in a homelike environment to families of children receiving medical treatment.

Your Sponsorship Supports

Proceeds from this event support the mission of Ronald McDonald House Charities® of Greater Chattanooga, which is to provide families with the care & resources they need when their child is sick and to support programs and services that directly improve the health and well-being of children.

THE BROWN FAMILY

When Audrea Brown was rushed to the hospital with dangerously high blood pressure, she thought she was just being cautious. Within hours, she was diagnosed with severe preeclampsia. “Congratulations, you’re having a baby today,” the doctor said, and in an instant, everything changed.

At just 32 weeks, baby Adler was born via emergency C-section. He was tiny and fragile, placed immediately in a bag to regulate his body temperature, and rushed to the NICU for critical care. Audrea, still recovering from the magnesium drip and surgery, wasn’t able to hold her son or even see him for more than 26 hours. “Being ripped away from the child you carried — not even getting to touch him — was one of the hardest things I’ve ever experienced,” she shared.

After spending one night in the hospital room, Ethan and Audrea were offered a place at the Ronald McDonald House in Chattanooga. “We didn’t know what to expect,” Ethan shared. “But it was more than we imagined. It was warm and welcoming. The staff was amazing—one of them even moved us to another room because the AC was making a noise and she wanted us to rest.” At the House, the Browns found a safe place just steps from their son. “It gave us the ability to be close to Adler, to heal, and to breathe. That mattered more than we can ever explain,” said Ethan.

Over the course of 38 nights, the Browns found stability in the little things: having a hot meal ready after a long day in the NICU, talking with other parents going through similar challenges, and knowing they could walk across the street to be with their son. “It was a place where we could breathe,” said Ethan. “You don’t realize how much that matters.”

The days were long, filled with medical updates, learning to be first-time parents in a NICU setting, and trying to keep faith that their baby boy would continue to grow stronger. But each small milestone Adler reached was celebrated, and the House gave his parents a space to heal, rest, and show up for him. “The Ronald McDonald House made a huge difference for us,” Audrea said. “It helped us be there for Adler every single day. It gave us the support we didn’t know we would need.”
